Police on Tuesday arrested a man suspected of stealing an $1,800 bike outside of the Longboard Restaurant and Pub at about 7 a.m. on Sunday.

The man was caught on camera using bolt cutters to free the bike from its post and fleeing toward Main Street.

Police circulated a video still on Facebook and Twitter of the man and asked for the public's help in identifying him.

The man was arrested after an employee at the Sugar Shack saw the video still and reported seeing the man downtown.

At the time of his arrest, he was wearing the same jacket from the video surveillance photo, police said.

His name has not yet been released.
